1955 Cor Mariae

*Immaculate Heart High School
Los Angeles, California*

Foreword

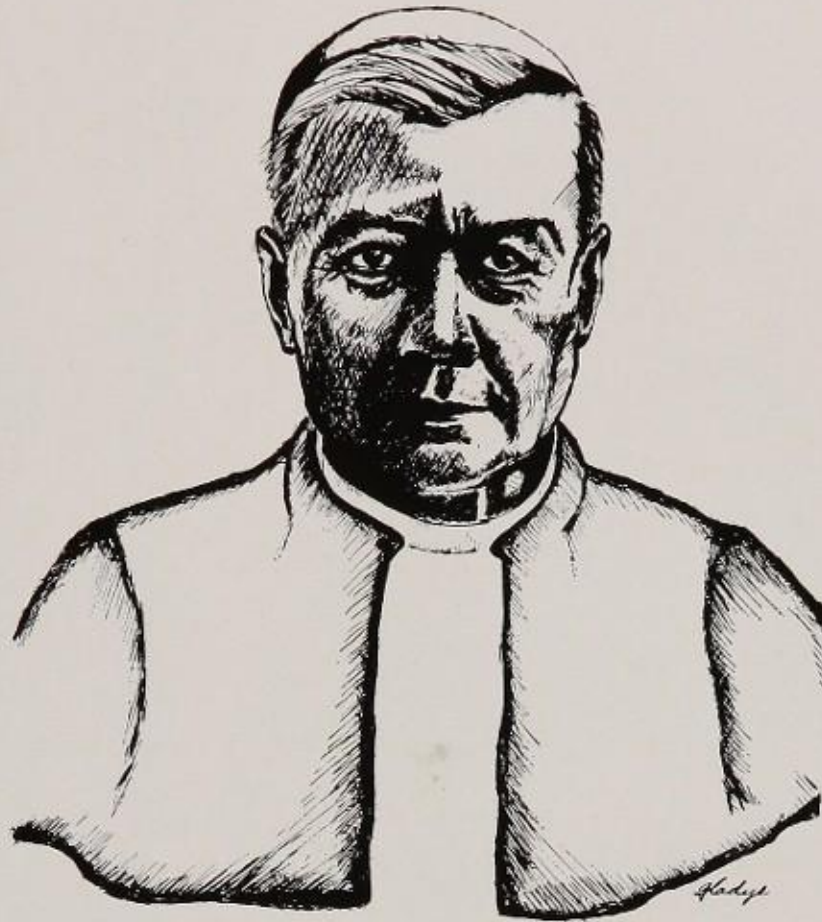

There was a time, not too far past, when family life, the very basis of society, revolved around the Church and her Liturgy. Her happiness, her sorrows, her feasts and her fasts were reflected in the home life of every Catholic.

Now, in this age of specialization, where every art, every science, every idea is restricted to its own sphere, Religion is classified by some as an extra-curricular activity only.

To help in combating these false ideas, we of Immaculate Heart High School have chosen as the theme of the 1955 COR MARIAE, "The Symbols of the Church as Exemplified in the Liturgy."

Understanding these symbols, we will be able to penetrate deeper into the glorious mysteries of our Faith and thus do our part to bring the world back to the feet of its Maker where it may rest until time eternal. In doing this, we may also be assisting the great Saint Pius X, the Father of the Liturgy, in his aim to "restore all things to Christ."

Dedication

This year Catholics were privileged to witness the canonization of the great Saint Pius X who became the first pope to be raised to the Canon of Saints in nearly 300 years. That is why we of Immaculate Heart High School wish to pay homage to this great laborer in the fields of the Church whose sole aim was "to restore all things in Christ." With this in mind, we lovingly dedicate the 1955 edition of the COR MARIAE to Saint Pius X, the Father of the Liturgy.

"His look, his word, his whole being express three things: goodness, firmness, faith. Goodness was the man himself; firmness was the leader; faith was the Christian, the priest, the pontiff, the man of God. Tu autem, O homo Dei."

My dear Graduates:

We are pleased to extend to you our hearty congratulations. We are comforted that your years at Immaculate Heart High School have prepared you to be the active recipients of God's graces most abundantly, as you move on to higher studies and to other fields of activity.

Asking the blessings of Our Lady upon you at all times, I am
Faithfully in Christ,

James Francis Cardinal McIntyre

Our Chaplain's Message

Dear Graduates:

In the days of sailing vessels cabin boys in training for the sea were told, "When climbing down from high places on the mast, keep coming but always look up." It was good advice then. It still is.

As you graduate from high school, you take another step up the ladder of life. You may have plans for college or the business world. The road may lead to Montecito or the holy state of marriage. I would change the advice of the sailors of old to read, "Keep going but always look up."

Look up to your parents—the source of your physical life. Your mother and father have done much for you and are ready to do more. They wish only your happiness. They want only your love.

Look up to our school—your Alma Mater. The Sisters dedicated to God and to you have given their best in the training of your minds and the cultivation of your souls. They are more than your teachers. They are your friends.

Look up to your country—the protector of your community life. We live in a truly great country. It is great only because those who have gone on ahead of us made it so. It will continue to be great only if we assume active roles as its citizens and keep it great.

Look up to your Church—the source of your spiritual life. Christ has given us His true Church with the sacraments as channels of grace. Christ is the only true Way of Life from here to eternity.

Graduation is indeed a commencement. In a sense life commences for you. "Keep going but always look up" to your good parents, your school, your country, and your Church. God bless you always.

Sincerely,

F. Bernard M. Martin

"May this incense which
Thou hast blessed, O Lord, ascend to Thee, and may
Thy mercy descend upon us."

This illustration expresses the ideal and purpose of all Liturgy. Liturgy comprises the incense of prayer and sacrifice which we, as members of the Mystical Body Christ, must offer to our Divine Savior in praise and thanksgiving.

Our Triune God, through the Holy Ghost, distributes to us the redeeming merits of Christ's passion and death. These same inexhaustible merits flow to us like fish in a stream through the holy sacrifice of the Mass and they bless us with immeasurable graces and strength to live holy Christian lives.

"Rare compound of laughter, frolic and fun
To relish a joke, and rejoice at a pun."

Carole Ann Sloier

"Fair as the day, and sweet as May."

Joan Spaeth

"The fairest garden in her looks,
And in her mind the wisest books."

Elaine Specht

"Her loveliness I never knew,
Until she smiled on me."

Charlene Storey

"Her gesture, motion, and her smiles
Her wit, her voice, our heart beguiles."

I SHALL BE THEN A GARDEN CHARMED FROM CHANGING,

Dee Sutton

"She is gentle, she is shy
But there's mischief in her eye."

Charlene Tangredy

"It shall be witty, and it shan't be long."

Margarita Teague

"A charming little darling she."

Shirley Mae Turano

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace."

Sharon Lee Ucker

"As she neared loud laughter ceased
And gossip died of shame."

Donna Jeanne Watz

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Anne Whelan

"It is good to lengthen to the last a sunny mood."

Beverlee Mary White

"Devout yet cheerful, active yet resigned."

IN WHICH YOUR JUNE HAS NEVER PASSED AWAY.

Ana Martinez Wiley

"How much lies in laughter."

Valerie Yerke

"And her face so fair, stirr'd with her dreams, as rose leaves with the air."

WALK THERE AWHILE AMONG MY MEMORIES."

Renee Mary Zambrowicz

"Well-timed silence has more diligence than speech."

Sally Zeyen

"'Tis slight, not strength, that gives the greatest lift."

CORPUS CHRISTI

The Most Blessed Sacrament of the altar, the "Holy of Holies," is Our Lord's greatest miracle of love. With the power of transubstantiation, the priest, at the consecration of the Mass, reenacts the sacrifice at Calvary, and Christ under the appearances of bread and wine comes to our hearts in Holy Communion.

Always, but especially at the joyous feast of Corpus Christi, should we acknowledge our faith in God's Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament, make amends to our Divine Savior for all the outrages committed against Him in His Sacrament, and particularly should we thank Him for this, the greatest of His gifts to us — His Sacrament of love — the Holy Eucharist.

"I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger: and he that believeth in me shall never thirst." (John 6:35)

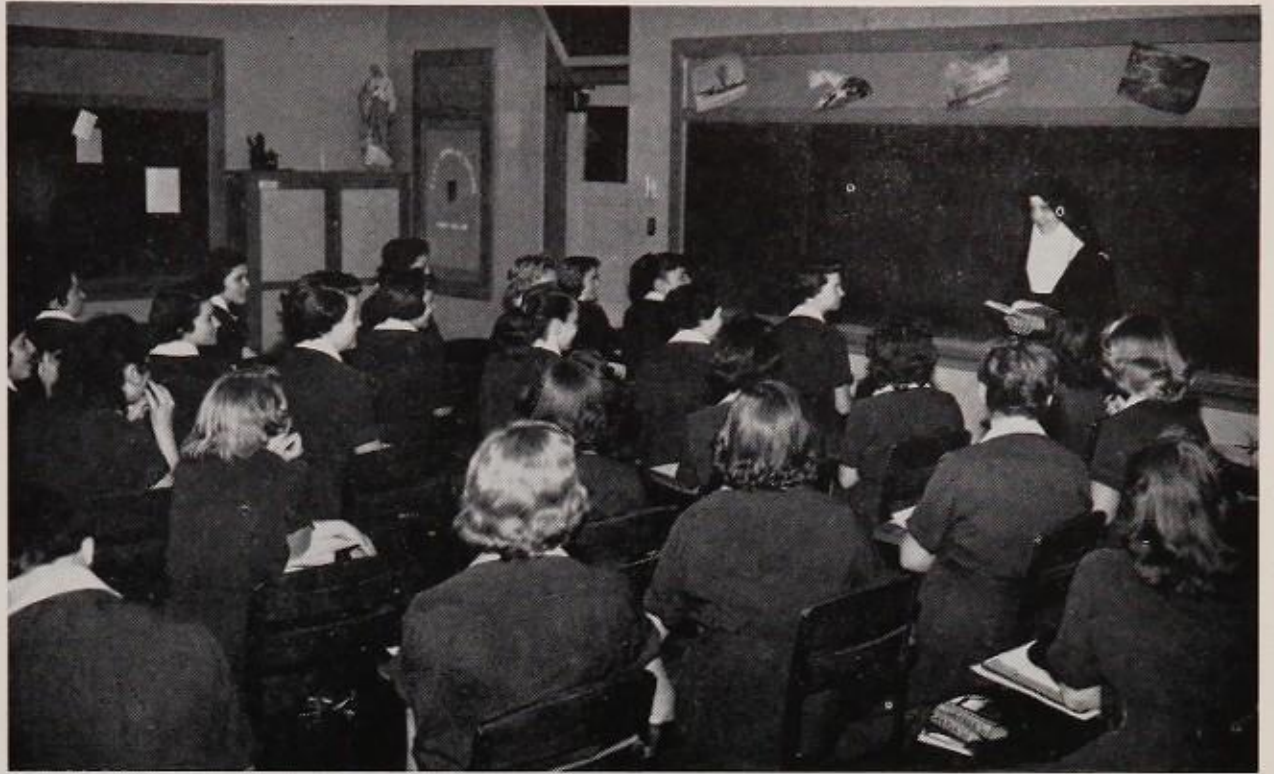

ADMINISTRATION

ENGLISH

Under the direction of Sister Marietta, I.H.M., a junior English class explores American folklore.

Melinda Tuohy explains the second step of paragraph writing to Sister Agnes Marie's sophomore English class.

RELIGION

The three epochs of Church History are the topics under discussion in Sister M. Richard's junior religion class.

Sister M. William, I.H.M.

Sister M. William, I.H.M., and her senior sociology group listen attentively to Violeta Mitkus' challenging question.

History projects are displayed in Sister M. Helen's freshman history class.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Miss Tomlinson's History II class becomes acquainted with the life of Napoleon.

Patricia McGinity points out the city of Saint Louis on the map of the United States in Sister M. Anita's U. S. History class.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

An informal discussion group of second year Spanish students is conducted by Sister M. Dolores, I.H.M.

Sister M. Richard, I.H.M., assists her fourth year Latin students in their translation of Virgil's Aeneid.

Students of French I review the rules of the language under the supervision of Sister M. Gemma, I.H.M.

Sister M. Celeste, I.H.M., looks on as Carol Bacon, Sheila McGee, and Kathleen Cecil go through the final steps in the preparation of nitric acid.

LABORATORY SCIENCES

Physics students, under the direction of Sister Joseph Mary, I.H.M., study the two extreme forms of energy — physical exertion and the generation of static electricity.

With the help of Sister Sharon Rose, I.H.M., biology students learn to work with and enjoy biology projects.

COMMERCIAL ELECTIVES

Students learn precision and accuracy, two important factors, in Sister Mary Faith's Typing I class.

Sister M. Johanna's shorthand students practice taking business letters from dictation.

MATHEMATICS

Freshman algebra students study equations under the direction of Sister M. Dorothy Ann, I.H.M.

Sister Louise Marie, I. H. M., demonstrates the technique of table setting to her cooking class.

Advanced sewing students are supposed to tackle more intricate problems of construction and finishing under the watchful eye of Sister Virginia Ann, I. H. M.

Sophomore students prepare to "taste the fruits of their efforts."

Sewing I students are striving to master the basic principles of clothing construction, not the least of which is control of that temperamental machine.

HOME ECONOMICS

ART

With the help of Sister Virginia Ann, I. H. M., advanced students work on oils and layout during the first semester.

Advanced students learn the techniques of serigraph printing.

THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY

"Mary is taken up into heaven; the angels rejoice and bless God with songs of praise." (First Vespers)

The feast of the Assumption, one of the most solemn feasts in Mary's honor, commemorates the end of her life when her incorrupt body was raised from the tomb and assumed into heaven. This belief was proclaimed a Dogma of the Church in 1950.

"I was exalted as a rose plant in Jericho." (Eccli. 24:18)

The Son of God, manifesting His great love for His mother, truly exalted her as Queen of Heaven. So it is with gladness that we celebrate the newly established feast of the Queenship of Mary on the last day of May, Mary's month.

"Hearken, O Daughter, hear and incline thine ear, for the king hath greatly desired thy beauty. Alleluia."

by making a good retreat."*

Students take advantage of spiritual reading time during retreat.

SEVEN SORROWS

Seven swords of sorrow pierced the loving heart of Mary, who, as co-redemptrix of mankind, suffered all the bitter anguish of the Passion and Death of her Divine Son.

These sorrowful events are: The prophecy of Simeon, the flight to Egypt, the loss of Jesus in the temple, Christ's way of the Cross, His death on Calvary, the piercing of His Sacred Heart with a lance, and His burial. They are commemorated by Holy Mother Church on the two feasts of the Seven Dolors when Mary, the Star of the Sea, is honored as our Sorrowful Mother who is ever our solace in our own sorrows.

"... and thine own soul a sword shall pierce, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed." (Luke 2:35)
